Life Prisoner Is Freed on Guilty Plea by Another

Man Wrongly Convicted in Ohio Will Be Released From Penitentiary as Youth Makes Confession.

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Ohio, Feb. 21.—Three false confessions "I am guilty" from the lips of another man, and an indefinite number of years behind the walls of the Ohio penitentiary had dwindled into hours today for Clarence Leroy McKinney (Convict 1210), a huckster who was sentenced to life imprisonment for murder. The court, that by a jury, charged in Clinton county, a stout, husky community, which sentenced McKinney, expects to right the injustice at a retrial when the sentence will be annulled, according to Judge Cleveland.

Convicted despite his protest of innocence of the murder of Emory McCright, a policeman, at Wilmington, Feb. 14, 1922, McKinney, a huckster, was unable in the eyes of the jury to furnish an alibi. In the same courtroom where he was sentenced with the same judge presiding a boy in his early twenties, Lewis Vanderweert, son of a fruit grower living near Jackson, the first arrested on charges of robbery, yesterday pleaded guilty to the murder. He was sentenced to life imprisonment. Walter Birmingham, 19, an accomplice, pleaded guilty to manslaughter, and was given a one to three year sentence in the Mansfield reformatory.

Germany Owes Hundred Billion Marks To Allies

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN, Feb. 21.—Germany's payment to the allies between November, 1918 and September, 1922, in fulfillment of the Versailles treaty and supplementary agreements, amounted to 45,699,000,000 gold marks, according to a compilation made public here. German losses in the execution of the treaty terms are taken into account the total payments have been 56,599,000,000 gold marks. Inclusion of the value of Alsace Lorraine and the former German colonies brings the total to more than 100,000,000,000 marks.

Clement Is Winner Of Senate Seat

Special Election Results in Good Majority for County Candidate Who Will Have Seat in Upper House at Special Session.

TOTAL VOTE.
Carter	410
Clement	303
Pittsylvania	2,673
Total	1,654 3,083

With the result of yesterday's special election conclusively evident that N. E. Clement was the winner, despite the absence of many returns from Pittsylvania precincts, John W. Carter, defeated candidate this morning telegraphed his congratulations to the winner.

This message was "Please accept my congratulations upon your election to the Senate."

Mr. Clement who was reached at his home in Chatham this morning said that he had no official statement to give other than that he was "profoundly grateful to the people of Pittsylvania and Danville for the support which they gave me." Mr. Clement appeared that he was thoroughly satisfied with the outcome of the election and said that he thought that full returns would show him a majority of about 100 votes.

This morning only 21 precincts out of 59 in Pittsylvania county had been received at Chatham an office where being checked up.

Early this afternoon the complete figures from the district were available. These showed that the fifty precincts of Pittsylvania gave Clement 2,673 and Carter 410. These figures added to the city precincts which showed Carter 1,246 and Clement 410, made Mr. Clement's full vote from both city and county 3,083, making Mr. Carter's majority 1,654.

The names of the voters for Mr. Carter, obtained in Danville, Mr. Clement's majority in the county was 2,668 while Mr. Carter's majority in Danville was 303.

Mr. Carter's majority in the county was 2,668 while Mr. Carter's majority in Danville was 303.

Mr. Carter's majority in the county was 2,668 while Mr. Carter's majority in Danville was 303.

Pollard Was Not Afraid of Injure By Richardson

Richmond, Man Testifies That He Did Not Think Ex-Soldier "Had Nerve" to Do Anything.

(By The Associated Press)
RICHMOND, Feb. 21.—Thomas Pollard, prominent young business man of this city, felt safe from Herbert Richardson "complaining in the way men usually complain about such things" as to his relations with Mrs. Thelma Ham Richardson because "I do not think he had the nerve to do it." Pollard testified under cross examination today in his trial for the murder of Mrs. Richardson, his former stenographer.

"Did you think Richardson had a right to complain?" he was asked. "Not until later," the defendant said.

"It is a lucky thing for you that he did not complain in the way men usually complain, isn't it?"

"Yes."

"Did not Richardson have the nerve to enlist and to be on the battlefields of Europe?"

"Yes."

"You were exempted?"

"Yes."

"You stayed at home to protect your wife and to betray his wife while he was fighting?"

"I did not betray her then."

"You did it though?"

"After the war was over."

In the Pollard trial to date, the defense has introduced seven witnesses. The important features of their testimony follow:

Mrs. Bertha Mauger, a friend of Mrs. Richardson's, told of repeated threats by the deceased upon the life of Thomas Pollard, threats which the witness said made her fear for Pollard, and want him to leave.

Theodore Mauger, son of Mrs. Mauger, stated that he had conveyed Pollard's revolver back to the defendant after Mrs. Richardson had taken it away from Mrs. Richardson, fearing violence.

Miss J. Mosby West, with whom Mrs. Richardson boarded for a time, testified that the accused and the deceased had quarreled in her presence on several occasions.

J. L. Woodward, local insurance man, testified that Pollard had bought $5,000 additional insurance bearing an accident clause two days before the tragedy, and asked him if it would be effective "in case he were shot"; that Pollard so evidently feared for his life that he (Woodward) revoked the policy.

Alvin G. Quarles, Jr., employee and close friend of Pollard, told of the quarrels and fights Mrs. Richardson and Pollard engaged in during office hours, said that she had repeatedly evidenced violent temper, and had thrown papers, paperweights and ink bottles at him.

Robert Pollard, lawyer brother of the accused, testified that he came to the Pollard home when Mrs. West called him immediately after the shooting, that the accused met him at the curb as he got out of the car, and helped the defendant, who was in a hysterical condition, into the house, and had picked up the deceased's handbag from the porch, and her hat from the vestibule that he turned over the gun to Hiram Smith, the attorney.

State Senator Julian Gunn testified that he had gone to the home of Mrs. Jones, prosecution witness with Hiram Smith, to inquire as to what she knew of the affair. He said that he did not think that Mrs. Jones had become angry with Mr. Smith as she had testified on the stand early in the case.

(By The Associated Press)
RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 20.—The dramatic point in the direct testimony of Thomas Pollard, prominent young business man on trial in Hastings Court here for the murder of his former stenographer, Mrs. Thelma Ham Richardson, was reached late today when he produced a sealed note which he said he penned four days before Mrs. Richardson was killed, and in which a request was made that should he meet with violent death she should be "dealt with as hard as possible."

"If I am killed," the note said, "and any jury in Virginia should turn her loose it would be a blot on the state forever."

The unopened note was produced by the defendant, and passed to Judge D. C. Richardson, who broke the seal and read it. The prosecution offered (Continued on Page Five.)

Four Men Held For Smoking in Utah

Prominent Salt Lake Citizens Arrested for Puffing Cigarettes in Public Place.

(By The Associated Press)
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Feb. 21.—Four prominent Salt Lake City citizens faced charges today of violating the Utah anti-cigarette law, after their arrest in a cafe yesterday. The accused were Ernest Baninger, last fall Republican candidate for the United States Senate.

Ambrose N. McKay, general manager of the Salt Lake City Tribune, Edgar Newhouse, and official of the American Smelting and Refining Co., J. C. Lynch, local capitalist.

The violations charged by the Utah law, charges that the arrests were the result of a frame up to discredit the law and aid in the movement for its repeal by the legislature now in session, were vehemently denied at the office of the sheriff who said his deputies had ordered to arrest all violators and did not know the identity of the men taken in custody.

The four defendants were released on their own recognizance after appearing before a magistrate.

Washington Day Ceremonies To Be Held At Capital

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Ceremonies at Washington monument at 9 a. m. tomorrow to which the governors of all the states have been invited to listen by radio will open the capital's celebration of Washington's birthday.

Secretary Weeks and other high government officials as well as representatives of a number of patriotic organizations will lay wreaths in the base of the monument and the names of the states will be read by the first president.

Irish Federal Officers Attacked

Sheriff Tells Why He Wanted Men Held Here Freed

The appended letter from the sheriff of Floyd county, Ga., to Sergeant J. H. Martin, U. S. Marshal, telling him why the authorities of that place in a telegram asked that A. Allen and William Myers, arrested here several days ago as alleged safe blowers, be released from custody. Acting on instructions received in the telegram, the men were released on Monday morning. The letter indicates that there is no doubt that the men were the ones sought by the home authorities. The letter follows:

"Mr. J. H. Martin, Sergeant,
"Danville, Va.,
"Dear Sir:
"In regard to A. Allen and Myers, 'Confessing my telegram of yesterday I am writing you concerning the two above named men.
"I find that Bill Myers is out on bond, and that the court continued his case at the last term because of sickness in his family.
"We have true bills against Allen, but when I took the matter up with the solicitor-general, he made investigations and found that the witnesses were either dead or had gone, that there was no trace as to the whereabouts of the witnesses. The solicitor-general, therefore, advised that the case be dropped. The court would be put to a great deal of cost in getting Allen back, and there being no way to convict him, it was very much better to ask you to release him.
"I am very grateful to you for your interest in this matter and assuring you that my willingness to assist you when I can I am,
"Yours very truly,
"W. E. WILSON, Sheriff.

Senate and House Of N. Carolina Pay Tribute To Thomas

(By The Associated Press)
RALEIGH, Feb. 21.—By a joint resolution which was introduced in the upper house by Senator L. R. Varner, of Robinson, both Senate and House paid tribute to the memory of Frank Thomas, whose death occurred November 19, 1922. The resolution referred to the part he had in the suffrage amendment to the Constitution in 1899; to his initiation of the movement for the state reference library and other public services rendered by him. Several senators spoke to the resolution after which adjournment was taken in honor of him.

Stecker Is Back For Bout With Peters Friday

Young Stecker has returned to Danville from South Carolina where he defeated two opponents in wrestling matches gaining two out of three falls each time. Stecker said this morning that he intended completing his training for his bout on Friday with "Cyclone" Peters. This is a return match with Peters who wrestled with Stecker two weeks ago, the last ending in a draw. Friday night's engagement will be a wrestle to the finish and will go on early in order to afford ample time for a determination of the bout. Stecker is training today at the N. M. C. Academy, and will do some out of door training.

Suggestion For Control Of Boll Weevil Offered

(By The Associated Press)
ATLANTA, Feb. 21.—Control of the boll weevil by rays stored in chemical salts and applied by adhesive mixture to the plants to sterilize the eggs of the insects is suggested here by Dr. M. P. Henshaw, director of the National Cotton Conference here.

Dr. Henshaw, a chemist, asserted that the enormous rate of propagation of the weevil more than two million being propagated by one pair in one season, is one reason why the weevil is so difficult to fight.

He suggested that the rate of reproduction should be of value in controlling the "billion dollar bandit," he said.

National Rep. Club Favors Light Wines

(By The Associated Press)
YANCEYVILLE, N. C., Feb. 20.—A meeting of the Tobacco Growers' Association of the county was held in the courthouse here last Saturday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to plan and promote agricultural progress along all lines. Some of the matters for immediate consideration will be the raising of more grain and food crops, the more economical purchase of farm supplies and closer cooperation in marketing.

Producer R. T. Wilson, Caswell county's representative in the State Senate, was here for the week-end. The young men's class of the Baptist church will hold a business and social meeting Friday evening in the Sunday School rooms of the church. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served. The fathers of members of the class will be present as guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Anderson, of Pelham, were in Yanceyville a short while Monday afternoon.

Mr. J. D. Bradsher, of Roanoke, is spending a few days in the county. Mr. R. Sterling Grady, who is recovering from an attack of the flu, is here.

The young people of the town spent a very delightful social hour with Miss Mary Lee Phoebe Tuesday evening.

Miss Margaret Jones visited her mother, Mrs. S. H. Jones, who is sick, Sunday afternoon.

Marriage license to one couple, J. M. Miller, of Yanceyville, N. C., to Miss Parker, of Yanceyville, Va., was issued last week by Register of Deeds, H. S. Turner.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met in Sunday afternoon in church parlors. A very helpful program was carried out.

Plans for the county commencement to be held near the middle of April are being completed as rapidly as possible. The committee in charge of the plan is as follows:

Chairman, R. A. Pose, Vice Chairman, R. A. Pose, Secretary, R. A. Pose, Treasurer, R. A. Pose, and other members.

Prince Miguel De Braganza Dies From Pneumonia

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Prince Miguel De Braganza, eldest son of King Manuel II of Portugal, died of pneumonia today. The prince, who was 45 years of age, came to this country recently to earn a living by selling insurance for a firm controlled by relatives and by his wife who was Miss Anita Stewart, of New York. His marriage was solemnized in Scotland in 1909 and after royal complications had been smoothed over the late Emperor Franz Joseph who raised the bride to the title of Princess.

FORD AUTO WITH THREE MEN TURNS OVER

A Ford touring car driven by Douglas McCune, of New Vance, and also occupied by W. L. Frye, of Lancaster, Pa. and William Chism of Vance, turned turtle yesterday afternoon near the latter place but fortunately none of the three men was seriously hurt, although all were shaken up and slightly bruised. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock. The trio were on their way to Danville. On rounding a curve, the steering apparatus of the machine is said to have gone bad and McCune lost control of the machine, which ran against an embankment and turned turtle.

In a special election in which small time was afforded for a canvass, Mr. Carter has the consolation of knowing that the voters of this city rallied to him handsomely, though only about 50 per cent of the total qualified potential vote of the city took the small trouble of casting their ballots. Mr. Clement carried every county precinct reported and even more decisively than Mr. Carter had carried all the six wards of this city.

At half past seven o'clock last night Mr. Carter gave out the following statement:

"With returns from Danville and fourteen precincts out of Pittsylvania reported, although I am leading on the face of returns the trend in the county is such as to make Mr. Clement's election assured in the absence of a political miracle. I take off my hat to the winner."

Result in Danville

The tabulated result of the election in Danville and in 22 out of 48 precincts in the county follows:

LIGHT VOTE CAST

(By The Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 21.—Virtually complete returns received up to midnight indicated an unusually light vote in the special elections held yesterday to fill eight vacancies in the General Assembly, six in the Senate and two in the House. Reports indicated that interest in the elections was slight and in some remote precincts no elections were held. As between parties, the only contest was in the eighth Senatorial district where the Democratic and Republican nominees fought for the seat made vacant by the resignation of John Paul, who recently was seated in the National House of Representatives, replacing Congressman T. W. Harrison. In this district, Ward Swank, Democrat, Harrisonburg, apparently was elected, over J. A. Garber, Republican, of Timberville. Unofficial returns placed Swank's probable majority at 125 votes.

The only serious contest between Democratic nominees was in the twenty-second Senatorial district, where J. Bates Vaughan and S. C. Lambeth Jr. were the opposing candidates for the place made vacant by the resignation of A. W. Robertson. Latest returns gave Vaughan a slight lead, but with 20 of the 21 missing precincts located in Bedford County, Lambeth's home, the latter's election by a narrow margin was indicated.

In the twenty-fourth district, John W. Carter of Danville, early last night conceded the election of Nat E. Clement, of Chatham. Danville gave Carter a comfortable lead, but this was soon lost in the avalanche of Clement votes in the country precincts. Mr. Clement will succeed George T. Rison, resigned. John A. Lesner was an easy winner over Ivor A. Page, Jr. in the 21st district. He will succeed Senator Griffith Dodson, resigned. Mr. Page resigned as a member of the House of Delegates to make the race for Senator. James Mann will succeed him in the lower branch of the legislature without opposition.

S. A. Montague, of Portsmouth, was the victor over J. Davis Reed, former mayor of Portsmouth for the post in the Senate made vacant by the death of Senator W. C. Corbett.

GIRLS FEET DO WHAT HANDS WERE MEANT FOR

(By The Associated Press)

BERKELEY, Cal., Feb. 20.—Arrived birth, Martha Hale, freshman at University of California here, has taught herself not only to do with her feet practically everything that the physically normal girl of twenty can do with her hands, including reading, writing, sewing and dressing herself, but intends to teach others who are crippled to help themselves. For this purpose, she is taking a special course in social service.

FUNERAL OF MR. GILES

The funeral of Joseph E. Giles was conducted on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his brother, A. J. Giles at Vance, Va. Interment was made in the family burial grounds nearby. Services at the grave were in charge of the Maxons, a large number of floral decorations being in evidence at the funeral. It was observed that one handsome floral cross bore the emblem of the Ku Klux Klan. The pall bearers were C. L. Giles, H. E. Giles, A. T. Brooks, Joe Green, Joe Green and H. A. Giles. The flower bearers were H. L. Brown, S. W. Adams, D. W. Myers, H. D. Dodd, F. R. Kirk, P. B. Gregory, Floyd Williams, Charlie Giles, Hassel Dodd, Swanson Dodd, Ernest Dodd, W. G. Green, I. H. ARE BUSTLES COMING BACK?

ON OUR LEFT: THE TIGHT BODICE OF 1887. IN THE MIDDLE: THE BUSTLE. ON OUR RIGHT: THE BUSTLE. MARGARET LAWRENCE WEARS THE COSTUME IN "SECRETS." IT'S OF THE PERIOD OF 1888. IN THE CENTER: THE HOOP SKIRT. IN 1887 IT WAS STRICTLY IN STYLE.

By MARIAN HALE

(Special to The Bee)

ARE we due for a revival of the hoop skirt? And the bustle? Not many people now living can remember a year in the past as hoops. The bustle, however, is recalled by merely rather elderly folk. The tight bodice is within the recollection of those hardly yet middle-aged.

Indications are that we are going to have the tight bodice with us again. The bustle is something more than a possibility. The hoop skirt, perhaps, at a recent ball in New York, a fashionable society girl appeared in a gown that reproduced the style of 1870 in all its details. A smart designer is bringing out taffeta frocks with back trimming that strongly suggests the bustle.

As to tight bodices, fashion authorities won't commit themselves, so I called on Mrs. M. L. Thompson, who conducts a school for corset fitters, and asked her if stiff corsets are coming into style again.

"Stiff ones, no," she said, "but corsets, yes indeed."

"Women positively are going back to corsets, especially as soon as they realize what going without them is doing to their figures."

"A good figure is the basis for every costume. Properly corseted in the new light materials, sparsely boned, women can wear whatever gowns they choose. They can return to basques or to the corset of former days without discomfort, because the modern corset gives slenderness without distorting the form."

"In fact, to achieve the desired uncorseted effect of today, it is necessary to wear a corset."

"A woman is not a marble statue."

The most perfect figures have bumps and imperfections which only a corset can conceal.

"What's more, costume plays are all the rage on Broadway just now. They show women in every type of gown, from 1800 A. D. to the present day, so we actually can see how women have looked through the ages, and draw our own conclusions. Judging from the exclamations of admiration and the applause which greet the be-ruffled, crinolined costumes of the Victorian period there's a considerable desire on women's part of return to them."

"Stiffness," remarked Mrs. Thompson, "travel in cycles, you know."

"When the psychological time for the reappearance, say, of bustles comes, there'll be no way of preventing them."

"But whether or not that time's come, I can't tell—who can?"

"Who, indeed? But—be prepared!"

Reception Marks Opening Of West End School Bldg.

The West End school at Schoolfield was formally opened and dedicated to its work by a reception in the building last night, at which the Parent-Teacher Association was host.

The reception was attended by six or seven hundred Schoolfield and Danville people. Today actual classroom work will begin. The new school building is handsomely equipped throughout for the purpose for which it was built.

As Miss Rose Brimmer said last night in a brief talk, "the school is the summation of our dreams and has only been made possible by the earnest and loyal co-operation of the parents, the teachers, the county school board and the Riverside and Dan River Cotton Mills."

The program included a number of talks by both men and women who are interested in various phases of educational and welfare work in Schoolfield. There were two visiting speakers of note in the educational work of the State, Prof. B. H. Van Oot of V. P. I., Blacksburg, and Mrs. E. C. Beverly of Whitwell. Both made brief but forceful speeches appropriate to the occasion.

Dr. T. A. Smoot, pastor of Main street Methodist church, Prof. J. P. Craft, of Averett College and Mrs. Spessard of Schoolfield "V" were among others who made talks.

The address of welcome was made by W. C. McMann, president of the Parent-Teacher Association. He told of the joy and pleasure of the members on the completion of the new school building, and of the work the organization had been active. Mr. McMann was followed by H. R. Fitzgerald, president of the Riverside and Dan River Cotton Mills, who emphasized the value of an education in developing and unfolding a man's character and life.

Miss Brimmer's talk was a comparison of school facilities at Schoolfield ten years ago and today. Ten years ago there was one frame school building, containing 8 rooms. There was no running water, no electric lights and the equipment was very meager, and there was desk room for about 240 pupils. Today, it was pointed out, Schoolfield has two handsomely equipped brick buildings, each with capacity for 600 pupils, both buildings being electrically lighted with running water. The enrollment ten years ago was 375, average attendance 298; today the enrollment is 1,154, average attendance 949. The faculty ten years ago was one principal and nine grade and no special teachers. Today there is a principal, two assistant principals, 22 grade teachers and five special teachers. Ten years there were no special departments; today cooking, sewing, industrial art, music, physical and part-time instruction are taught.

Miss Brimmer in her talk paid the highest tribute to the members of her faculty, saying that the splendid progress that had been made at the Schoolfield schools was, in large part, due to the co-operation of her teachers.

Mrs. Pitts and Miss Jermine Patterson, assistant principals, told of their work in the schools, their ups and downs, their hopes and the final realization of many of them. Mrs. Pitts talked especially about the night school and the part-time schools.

It was presided over by E. B. Watson, county superintendent of instruction, could not attend the reception, but he was kept at his home in Chatham because of illness in his family.

Music was furnished by the Riverside and Dan River Band, conducted by Prof. Joseph Vizzetti, and was of an unusually high order. Many of the band parts had been composed by Prof. Vizzetti, with the special view of unifying the orchestration. The result was a real success and called forth many compliments, both for Prof. Vizzetti and the band members of whom there are thirty-five.

During the course of the evening many of the guests took occasion to walk through the handsome building which is to serve the West End school. All were struck with the wonderful facilities for doing proper work and those who had received their education in the schools of a generation or even a decade ago could not help but contrast the advantages accruing to the public school pupils of 1923—especially if they are so fortunate as to live in Schoolfield.

After the program had been completed ice cream and cake were served as refreshments.

The program for the evening follows:

Present Greeting March—Barthard Riverside and Dan River Concert Band.

Words of Welcome, Mr. McMann, President Parent-Teacher Association, Mr. H. R. Fitzgerald.

Five Minute Review of Progress of Education in Schoolfield.

Overture, The Mastadons—Brooks Riverside and Dan River Concert Band.

MINSTREL SHOW DRAWS BIG HOUSE

Al. C. Field's minstrel show came and went yesterday playing to two large audiences which evidenced the same delight as is always shown when this popular entertainment comes to town. The matinee was attended largely by women and the youngsters while at night the audience was a Field house with many people here from the surrounding section.

The program presented here this year was practically the same as that seen when the well known organization was here earlier in the season. Most of the "gags" were the same, the whole scheme of the program was the same and many of the songs given in the more serious part of the program were the same. Despite the return engagement it was evident that it had not lost its appeal by any means. Billy Church and Jack Richards were in excellent voice, John Healy, the same benign character with his characteristic "Old Black Joe," Bert Swor, the imitable comedian also Nick Hufford his able counterpart. Then there is Boni Mack the ever female impersonator and nimble "dancer" and Carl Cameron's Saxophone act.

The performance followed the usual lines, that is the presentation of the cast in colorful costumes, the epic of the Mississippi, some clever ensemble dancing in fact all of the numbers which go to make minstrelsy enjoyable. Following were the groups of songs by the Field songster interspersed with numbers by the comedians. The rest of the program was given over to a number of vaudeville sketches with the comedians playing the principal roles. There was a parody on golf a Bert Swor monologue in which

THE WHOLESOME BAKING POWDER

Use Rumford—then you can be sure that your baked foods will always be raised just right—even in texture, delicious, digestible, and highly nourishing with Rumford vitalizing phosphates. Baking success with Rumford is the rule with the inexperienced, as well as with the expert.

Greater richness, finer flavor for all your cooking!

The soups you make, the gravies, sauces, cakes, bread-stuffs and puddings—you can give them all a new measure of richness now.

No more eggs, no additional butter—but with richer milk. It's in the stores now—Libby's, "the milk that good cooks use."

There are 7½ teaspoons of pure butter fat in every 16 oz. can of Libby's Milk. And it's the same butter fat that makes cream and butter such great enrichers.

Cow's milk made double rich

For Libby's is cow's milk and nothing but cow's milk. It's exceptionally rich for two reasons.

As you know, there are certain sections of this country famed above all else for the perfection of their dairy products.

It is not simply because nature has provided these sections with ideal pasture lands, shady slopes and well-watered valleys where grass grows in abundance for the cows.

But the men there are dairymen. That is, their business. They know the kind of cows that give the richest milk and they constantly compete among themselves to see who can raise the finest herds.

By placing our plants in these favored sections we get for Libby's Milk the finest milk in the land.

And we make it double rich simply by evaporating more than half the moisture from it! Nothing is added to it; none of its food values taken away. We seal it and sterilize it in air-tight cans, for only thus can we bring it safely to you who live, perhaps, many hundreds of miles away.

"The milk that good cooks use"

Once you have tried this richer milk, have seen what a delightful flavor it gives to some favorite dish, you will not wonder why it has been called "the milk that good cooks use." You, too, like thousands of other women will want it regularly for all your cooking.

Order a can of Libby's Milk from your grocer now. Learn tonight how inexpensively you can give your cooked things greater richness, finer flavor.

Scoop's Column

DRAKES BRANCH, February 21.—(Grapevine Wireless).—Uncle Elmer makes a speech at the meeting of the Pipe Smokers Club of Dundee.

"When you feel run down and a taste of dark brown fingers twist your tongue and palate; when your bones are sore clear into the core, as the pounded with mallet; when you've taken slugs of most bitter drugs and pellets large and tiny and still you feel like a poisoned eel and sweat like old Geominy; I've a word to say, so listen pray, of the cure to you I'm bringing. If a mile you'll walk before six o'clock where do the clays sure air is blowing, it will chase those ills that won't yield to pills or to physic or to powder so far away that you'll feel right gay and full upon chicken chowder. It is true, I swear, for I once was there for potent drugs a filter with my frame a wreck and a spavined neck and my stomach out of kilter. And then a friend told me if I'd wend eighty rods and back each morning all day long around a section, so, ditch the dope and go take a lope in the early morning weather; in a week or two you'll be fit to chew thirty rounds of harness leather."

—oo—

In the spring a young man's fancy, lightly turns to thoughts of love. Now, some pains I'd add, "chicken" is a cooling turtle dove. "Time" is fleeter soon they're married—no more "chicken" is she then. Nothing stirring with the coo stuff—just a fussy cackling hen.

—oo—

In the spring a young girl's fancy quickly turns to thoughts of fat. Just to see what the new forms are, so that she can get the pad. And in her fancy form attired, she looks peachy as the case, cuts a dashing picture figure in such snug tight fitting clothes.

—oo—

How Embarrassing! A church in a certain town where the congregation is so small that when the preacher says, "dearly beloved," the only young lady in the congregation thinks he is proposing.

There Are Always Some That No One Can Please. (From the Evansville Review.)

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reckord gave a party at their home on West Main street last Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith. Refreshments were served and a splendid time enjoyed by quite a number of the guests.

—oo—

Salesmanship Personified. "How do you manage to sell so many vacuum cleaners?" the new salesman asked.

"It's entirely due to my method of approach," the go-getter replied. "I begin my sales argument by saying, 'Mrs. Jones, I have called to enable you to spend every afternoon at the movies.'"

—oo—

Our congratulations to Senator Clement.

—oo—

How Come? Nearly all the girls dress their hair so that it covers their ears, especially when they wear low-necked waists and short skirts.

—oo—

Down on Crabbead street they're getting a great kick out of a newly-arrived Greek, who, being a devotee of caprets, went into the drug store and asked for a rubber holder that would fit a camel.

—oo—

Home Brew. Husband—"Who is that letter from?"

Wife—"What do you want to know for?"

Hubby—"There you are! What do I want to know? Honestly you are the most inquisitive person I ever saw."—Barney.

Joey Doolittle says after a man gets the bill for his wife's new furs he decides that the old overcoat is good enough for the rest of the winter.

—oo—

It used to be when you saw a man carrying a brief case down the street that you knew that he was either a lawyer or a musician. Now almost every person carries one, even the janitor brings his lunch in one.

LADIES GARMENT WORKERS STRIKE

(By The Associated Press)
BOSTON, Feb. 20.—A strike of workers in the waist, dress and the clothing making trades in this city announced by the International Ladies' Garment Workers Union began as scheduled today. The walk-out was said by union leaders to involve 3,000 workers, most of them women.

The union recently demanded a ten per cent. wage advance, provision for arbitrating disputes and an agreement by manufacturers to send out work only to shops in which sanitary conditions were approved. The manufacturers made no reply, it was said.

RHEUMATISM

Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to sell to every patient suffering that if a full pint bottle of Allenru, the sure-quick-remedy of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the sufferer and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered from acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of any one's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it in advance in every instance. "Every Picture Tells a Story"

GET RID OF THAT

NAGGING BACKACHE!

WHY put up with that nagging backache? You can't be happy when every day brings morning lameness, stabbing pains and that tired, all worn-out feeling. You want to be well. So you should be finding out what is making you feel so badly. Have you thought of your kidneys? Likely a cold or chill has slowed up your kidneys and that's why you have those racking backaches, stabbing pains, and that weak, depressed feeling. You may have headaches, too, with dizziness and annoying bladder irregularities. Heed these warnings. Help your kidneys before serious kidney sickness develops. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's" Says These Danville Folks:

Mrs. J. T. Clark 751 Colquhoun st., says: "My back was so bad it was difficult for me to get through with my housework and my kidneys were badly disordered. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended I began their use and was surprised and delighted with the instant relief they gave me."

Over Eight Years Later:
Mrs. Clark says: "My faith in Doan's Kidney Pills is as strong as ever. The cure Doan's gave me has been lasting."

Geo. W. Cole, plumber, 235 Belmont st., says: "My back was weak and my back ached. My back was stiff morning on getting up and it was hard to straighten. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at McFall's Drug Store and they cured me of this attack."

Always Gets Good Results:
Nearly four years later, Mr. Cole adds: "Whenever I have a slight hurt in my back Doan's fix me up."

Stage Is All Set For Biggest Radical Trial

Some of the alleged radicals captured in the Bridgman raid, who will face trial in St. Joseph, Feb. 26 (above.) Left to right, back row, Thomas O'Flaherty, New York; Charles Erickson, Chicago; Cyril Lamkin, Detroit; William F. Dunne, Butler, Mo.; J. M. Helle, Kansas City; Alex Ball, Philadelphia; W. Reynolds, Detroit; Francis C. Ashworth, Camden, N. J.; William B. Hamilton, Chicago; Eugene Dechtold, Chicago; Z. Nordling, Portland, Ore.; C. S. Ruthenberg, Cleveland, national secretary of the Workers' Party; and one-time Socialist candidate for governor of Ohio; Charles Krumboltz, Chicago. Max Lerner, Chicago; Thomas R. Sullivan, Chicago; E. McMillin, St. Louis.

(Special to The Bee)
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 20.—The most important and far-reaching case involving "criminal syndicalism" ever to be tried will open here Feb. 26.

National and international interest has centered on this trial (if favorable to the prosecution, the first of a series both on account of the issue involved and the prominence of the radicals who will be defendants.

William J. Burns, head of the Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, claims the prisoners were captured at a meeting planned to further the overthrow of present government and the establishment of communism.

The defendants counter with the claim the whole proceedings, meetings and program, were planned by the Burns Detective Agency and that the delegates were tricked into attending.

They further plan to introduce testimony that furtherance of radical activities is largely the work of private detective agencies, who stir up trouble for the pecuniary rewards and glory they get from then squelching mer resort in the town of Bridgman, about 25 miles south of here.

There, according to testimony which will be presented at the trial, raiding officers found a meeting being held in a wooded valley with flitting flaring pine knots giving the only light.

The day following the raid, the officers returned to Bridgman and, guided by a 12-year-old girl, went into the sand dunes near the lake and dug up a great quantity of literature, propaganda and official paraphernalia which the respondents are accused of having secretly buried.

Much of the literature uncovered pertains to the doctrine of communism and it is on this that the prosecution is resting its charge.

"K-97," it has been learned, is a government operative who, the prosecution has hinted, was present during the sessions of the Bridgman "convention."

To the radicals he was known as "K-97" and until a short time ago was supposed to be one of them. He was arrested with the others and was secretly released. On the government payroll, it is said "K-97" was William Morrow, a Department of Justice operative.

The stage is all set for the trial. The people will be represented by H. O. Smith, deputy attorney general of Michigan; Charles W. Gore, prosecuting attorney of Berrien county, and the latter's assistant, Attorney George H. Bookwalter.

The defendants will be represented by Frank P. Walsh, noted criminal lawyer of Kansas City and Washington, and Attorney Humphrey S. Gray of Benton Harbor, Mich.

The latter is a prominent figure in Michigan. He established the Good Samaritan church in Benton Harbor and is a bank president and a corporate lawyer.

Charles E. White, circuit judge for six years, will preside.

One case may decide the fate of all the defendants. It has been agreed that, while the defendants have held their separate trials, if the first man tried and not convicted the prosecution will dismiss the others.

If the state gets a conviction at the start, it is not impossible that many of the defendants will enter pleas of guilty.

the better part of the morning will be spent by the government in its effort to shake the defendant's story.

As a witness, Pollard apparently made a good impression. He was composed and his answers to questions were clear and definite. His exhibit was nervousness, although he appeared somewhat weary from his ordeal of more than five hours in the witness chair.

Retail Furniture Men Banquet At Burton Hotel

The regular meeting of the Retail Furniture Dealers Association of Danville last night at the Burton Hotel was in the nature of a banquet.

More than fifty members of the association were present in addition to a number of guests, including Mayor Wooding, J. A. Gilmore, Charlottesville, secretary of the Southern Retail Furniture Dealers Association; Rev. J. Calloway Robinson, pastor of St. Vernon church, D. Penn. secretary Retail Merchants and C. A. Eury of the Register and Bee.

A real banquet à la Burton was served and R. V. Clutter president of the local association acted as toastmaster. The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. Gilmore who made a splendid address relating to some very important details of the furniture business. Short addresses were also made by D. H. Penn, secretary of the Retail Merchants Association, C. A. Eury, advertising manager of the Register and Bee and a number of others.

Mr. Gilmore in his address was very complimentary to the furniture merchants of this city, stating that Danville was represented with a 100 per cent membership in the Southern Association, and the meeting last night was the largest single gathering of local furniture men that he has addressed for several years.

The furniture merchants at the meeting last night selected C. B. Clements and E. F. Carter as delegates and J. W. Bledsoe and Ed. Motley as alternates to attend the series of lectures at Richmond, Va., during the week of March 12 to be given by the American Homes Bureau.

EMPEROR OF CHINA CALLS HIMSELF "HENRY"

LONDON, Feb. 20.—The boy emperor of China, who recently married Princess Kuo Chua Sh, has issued an edict adopting the names of "Henry" for himself and "Elizabeth" for the new empress, according to information reaching London from Peking.

It was the emperor's admiration for Henry VIII of England and Queen Elizabeth which caused him to adopt these names.

FRANKLIN COUNTY RAT CAMPAIGN A SUCCESS

ROCKY MOUNT, Feb. 20.—Reports show that the big drive saved the county over $60,000.00. The great war against the rat conducted by H. P. Frahm, assisted by J. A. Phillips, superintendent of schools, is over for the time being. The casualties were heavy. It is reported that 18,000 rats were killed, and it had been conservatively estimated that 15,000 more were killed, that were not found.

Two thousand pounds of Barium Carbonate in five thousand packages were distributed at points within reach of every citizen, and attractive cash prizes were given within reach of every citizen, and attractive cash prizes were given to those destroying the largest number of rats. Cash prizes totaling $100.00 were made possible through the splendid co-operation of the Pease Mill Bank, and the business houses of the county and town, and the few persons who contributed to the drive.

K. Of P. Banquet At Their Hall

A large and appreciative audience of ladies and gentlemen were guests of Phoenix lodge, No. 68, Knights of Pythias last night in the castle hall of that lodge, the occasion being the commemoration by this lodge and influential unit of the order of the 50th anniversary of the order. It is estimated that no fewer than 200 persons were present and enjoyed the pleasantly varied program prepared for the occasion, this consisting of appropriate addresses by well known members of the order, recitations by a daughter of one of the prominent members, music by an excellent string orchestra, and a final performance of varied refreshments by the knights of the tri-colored shield.

After the lodge had been opened with the usual ceremonial form by Past Chancellor Commander A. C. Franklin, he introduced Isaac Berman as master of ceremonies for the remainder of the evening. Mr. Berman was very happy in the discharge of the duties of that post and his wit and pleasant contributions, notably his recitation of a poem, which varied by gravity and dignity, which had marked the efforts of the speakers.

After the singing of "America" by the entire assemblage, the Rev. Vivian Gray Smith, of the Presbyterian church, was presented and gave an eloquent exposition of the fundamentals of the order. His address was admirably received.

Selections by the orchestra intervened before the presentation of Harry Wooding, Jr., who in a well prepared and admirably delivered address in which were noteworthy oratorical periods lauded the tenets of the order and evoked warm applause.

After more music, Miss Anna Berman entertained the assemblage with a humorous recitation which she gave very commendably eliciting an enthusiastic recall.

Joseph W. Benton, of the local bar, was the next speaker and he was in a happy vein, contributing to the pleasures and the humor of the occasion and the repartee in which he and several others contributed.

A serious appeal for the discharge of its responsibilities by this country at this critical period in world affairs.

Other informal speeches and colloquies between the speakers added to the merit.

A song, "Whispering Wind" led by F. D. Anderson and assisted in the singing by a sextette of well known male singers, with Miss Ida Barham presiding as piano accompanist, closed the program.

Poincare Before Committee, Tells Of French Moves

(By The Associated Press.)
PARIS, Feb. 20.—The Foreign Relations Committee of the Chamber of Deputies today heard Premier Poincare for three hours and a half, but the information it wished to obtain was not completed, so the premier will appear again before the committee on Monday night to continue his explanations.

The Ruhr occupation was the chief subject discussed. The Premier stated that French and Belgians occupied 2,800 square kilometers in the Ruhr basin, leaving 600 square kilometers outside the occupation district. The occupied district produced 90,000,000 tons of coal yearly and the unoccupied part of that territory 8,000,000 tons.

Coke ovens numbered 14,500 of which 14,200 had been taken over; these were capable of turning out 30,000 tons daily.

The population of the Ruhr number 3,500,000 of whom 3,000,000 are in the occupied area.

After praising General De Gontie, declaring there had never been any question about replacing him, M. Poincare continued:

"It is not assigned that our mission is purely one of control. This mission is entrusted to sixty engineers, mostly French; some English engineers and volunteers are expected shortly. As a reply to the sabotage we have expelled 283 high officials from the Ruhr and 55 from the Rhineland; they were replaced by officials of lower rank, as we must not replace them with French."

"Before the occupation there circulated daily in the Ruhr 585 passenger trains and 620 freight trains;

What's Going on in the World

WEEK'S CHIEF EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
(Special to The Bee.)
THE State Department's quoted news as doubting if the Pan-American Congress in March will induce the Uruguayan president, Dr. Brum's, plan for a League of American Nations.

If North Americans had the slightest idea how South Americans feel, they never would have considered such a thing remotely possible.

The theory here seems to be that although Americans are North and South, yet they're all Americans and can agree, at any rate, on some sort of a joint attitude toward the rest of the world.

The fact is that South Americans are mostly unassimilated Europeans. They're a thousand miles nearer to Europe in sentiment, sympathy and comprehension than they are to the United States.

Not only are they Europeans but they're predominantly Spanish, and while the North American has pretty well forgotten his war with Spain, the Spaniard hasn't.

About the only feeling that the South American, as a South American, has toward the American of the north is that the latter's a strong, dangerous neighbor, and that the less the American of the south has to do with him, the safer he'll be.

IT'S TOO LATE NOW
The United States had one chance, indeed, to win South American favor, but she botched the job.

During the war South America needed her. If she'd merely been today, owing to disturbed conditions caused by orders from Berlin there are only 70 trains altogether daily. There were 40,000 railway employees in the Ruhr and 120,000 in the Rhineland. France has sent only 5,640. There is a French rolling stock in the occupied zone.

"To the present 1,025 cars of coal have been sent to France and Belgium."

—Mr. W. Dan Cooper—who has been confined in Edmunds Hospital for the past three weeks, will return to her home today.

GELSENKERCHEN IS DESCRIBED AS
CITY OF DEAD
(By The Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 20.—A Dortmund dispatch to the Times described Gelsenkirchen as a city of the dead. The stores, cafes, theatres and moving picture houses and the streets deserted 7 o'clock in the evening until 7 o'clock in the morning because of the boycott, too busy to heed this call it wouldn't have been so bad. The allies, however, had various things they wanted done there that they didn't care to do themselves, because they knew the South Americans wouldn't like it, which would hurt their standing later on. So they invited the United States to attend to these matters for them, and she did. The thanks she received was to have the allies make capital out of it against her every chance they got.

North Americans' shortcomings after the conflict were mainly trade mistakes of ignorance, like forgetting, for instance, that December's mid-summer and July mid-winter south of the Equator, and shipping winter goods in the spring and summer supplies in the fall.

Commercial rivals made the most of these errors, too.

Then there's the United States' persistence in trying to get Latin America into a patent and trade mark league with her, which, as a Venezuelan "Yellow Book" remarked, "would obligate us, at great expense, to organize a bureau to record all patents and trade marks registered in any of the signatory countries," a thing Venezuela isn't enthusiastic about, considering that the United States registered about as many a day as she does in a month.

These are just illustrations. South Americans are half irritated, half contemptuous at North Americans' failure to understand such things.

Of course there are individuals pro-

which caused the French to attempt the seizure of commodities.

Every public building is occupied by the troops and protected with wire entanglements and postmen are posted that the inhabitants approach these buildings at the risk of their lives.

German sabotage continues; the two coal barges sunk in the Rhine Herre Canal will block water transport of coal for several weeks. Today all the German customs officials in the occupied territory were dismissed; there they will be replaced with French. Apparently the Germans are making no attempt to procure export made with England has been approved by the United States Senate.

Pan-American League Problem of the Ruhr War Debt Collection

The senators, however, made a few changes, so the agreement will have to go back to the representatives for another endorsement. There's no chance that there will be any objection.

The administration meant the agreement to be model. It could follow in making similar settlements with other countries, without asking Congress about them again. But the Senate insists Congress shall keep on having the last word, as in the present case. That was the principal change made.

There's no occasion to worry about it at present, for no other country's threatening to pay the United States.

As for her own claims, England's showing signs of impatience. It's understood she soon will ask the allies who are under obligations to her when they can begin doing something about it.

Another report is that the American government and financiers will try to help the English pound back to parity with the United States dollar in international exchange markets, the idea being that this will send part of the world's gold, most of which has been gravitating in this country's direction, toward London.

It will be a good thing, if the plan works. While flattery to have the bulk of the gold in existence, it's been overdone with bad results to American trade.

BASCOM SLEMP PRAISES WORK OF G. O. P. DEPT.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—Actualized, most likely, by a good-bye, good luck sentiment, borne of wholesome admiration for officials of a department with which he has been thrown closely in contact, Representative C. Bascom Slemp wrote a letter to President Harding praising the work of the Postoffice Department officials.

The President thought so much of it that he passed it along to estimates General Hubert Work.

The Postmaster General was so proud of it that he had the whole correspondence published prominently on the first page of the Daily Postal Bulletin yesterday. The letters speak for themselves and are as follows:

"Office of the Postmaster General, Washington, Feb. 17, 1923.
"All Officers and Employees of the Postal Service:
"I was gratified to receive the letters printed below, and am publishing them for the information of all postal workers, whose interest and splendid co-operation has enabled us to make an enviable record of accomplishment during the past two years.

"Coming from one who has had an opportunity to observe closely the operation of the postal system, this unsolicited commendation from Mr. Slemp is a tribute to every postal worker, and I want to thank all of you for your share in this achievement."

Hubert Work, Postmaster General.

"THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington, Jan. 31, 1923.
"My dear General Work:
"I think you and your associates will be interested in the contents of the letter I am enclosing herewith. It is a wholly voluntary comment on the work of the department, and I am glad to have you note what an outsider has to say very truly,
"Yours
"Warren G. Harding.
"House of Representatives,
"Committee on Appropriations,
"Washington, Jan. 16, 1923.
"Hon. Warren G. Harding,
"President of the United States,
"Washington, D. C.
"Dear Mr. President:
"As you may perhaps know, I have been chairman of the Postoffice Subcommittee of the House for the past two years. The work done in the management of this department is really so wonderful that I do hope you may find time to personally look into it. The team work is truly remarkable and the results astounding. A net deficit of $31,000,000 for the fiscal year 1921 in all probability will be absorbed in 1923 and the department will break even.

"The credit is first to the Postmaster General himself and his four assistants. May I add there how fortunate you are to have Governor Mortimer give the benefit of his great executive ability to the government in this way? Col. Henderson in his field is supreme; likewise Mr. Glavin and Mr. Hillary.

"It means nothing to me to write this and these gentlemen know nothing of it, but I really felt it would be pleasant for you to know it.

"With best wishes, I am,
"Sincerely yours,
"C. B. Slemp.
"Mr. Slemp has finished the work on the Postoffice Department budget bill for the fiscal year 1923, and is voluntarily leaving Congress on March 4th, 1923.

—Friends of Mrs. Robert E. Tobin will be pleased to know that she is now convalescent after a serious and even dangerous illness of influenza.

E. Phillip Oppenheim

WORLD FAMOUS AUTHOR OF "THE GREAT IMPERSONATION," "MR. GREX OF MONTE CARLO" AND OTHER POPULAR MYSTERY NOVELS, HAS COMPLETED WHAT CRITICS PRONOUNCE HIS MASTERPIECE.

Of all of the hundreds of detective stories that have claimed attention, only "Sherlock Holmes" at his best is comparable to this new Oppenheim triumph. It presents an enthralling combination of splendid literary style, cleverly created situations and subtly sustained interest.

"EXPLOITS OF SIR NORMAN GREYES"

The new Oppenheim work, is a series of unusually interesting episodes, recounting the pursuit of a famous international criminal by a retired Scotland Yard criminologist.

The author departs from the somewhat stereotyped manner in which criminal narratives unfold. He expunges all gruesome details, interweaves heart interest in an amazing manner and brings the reader to the climax with the triumphant feeling that the reader's intelligence, not Oppenheim's great new character, solves the mystery.

Believing this to be the greatest detective story feature of the decade, THE BEE has secured newspaper serial rights.

THE BEE UNHESITATINGLY RECOMMENDS THE NEW OPPENHEIM SERIALS AS THE GREATEST OF ITS TYPE EVER TENDERED TO READERS OF FICTION.

THIS SERIES STARTS FEBRUARY 22.

RIG CHANGES SEEN IN FOOTBALL

Walter Camp Sees Coach Shake-Up

BY WALTER CAMP
(Copyright, 1923, By The Bee)

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—While it is a little early yet to determine just what the football map will look like when the coaches are finally settled, it is evident that there will be many changes and that of importance will appear in the coaching staff.

In the South Mike Donahue, the old Yale coach who has been at Auburn for so long, shifts to Louisiana State, and Pat of Auburn takes his place. Wade of Brown takes up the duties of Stegeman at Georgia, while Winn of Kentucky, succeeds June at Kentucky. Richards leaves Wisconsin after a long run there and his successor has not yet been determined upon. William Ingram, a former player goes to Indiana as coach. Sutherland goes from Lafayette to Pittsburgh to succeed Warner. He is expected to leave Penna. to go to Washington and Jefferson, and Lou Young takes up his duties at Penna. Carroll, at Dartmouth will be kept on the staff but Hawley will be the head coach. "Gorman" Schulz of Michigan, takes up Duffy's duties at Detroit; Glenn Klinger leaves Dickinson to become assistant to Berdek at Penn State. Exendine has left Georgetown where he has done so well and his place has not yet been filled. Duly at West Point, will be succeeded by McEwan. O'Neil leaves Columbia and his successor has not yet been appointed. "Shy" Huntington, after considerable discussion, has stayed on at the University of Oregon. This gives one some idea of the shifts.

It must have warmed the cockles of the heart of Lou Young, the newly appointed football coach at Penn., to hear the expressions of confidence and support given him at the dinner tendered Young and the new graduate manager, Cozens. Doctor Schoff, the noted end and captain of the 1892 team presided, and Carl Williams, Captain of '95, Jack Mines, Captain of '96, "Buck" Wharton Captain '97, Bill Hollenbeck, Captain '98, Miller Captain of last year's team and Hamer Captain elect, all spoke.

Besides these men, the table was full of old time encouraging Pennsylvanians including John Bell, Geo. Wharton Pepper, Geo. Brook, Ralph Morgan, Harry Thayer, Louise Madison and a host of others.

D. H. S. LOSES TO LEAKSVILLE

SPRING, N. C., Feb. 20.—The Leaksville High school basketball team defeated the Danville High school on the local Y. M. C. A. floor tonight by the score of 12 to 11. It was one of the most hard fought and closest contests seen here this season. Coaster Bobby for the first few minutes of play and her elimination, although the substitute played good ball, probably weakened the team. Hagg, forward did some steady shooting while the two forwards, Ward and Barclay did good work throughout the game. The locals played a consistent game and came out on the better end of the score.

WHEN SPEAKING OF MIRACLES MANAGERS DON'T OVERLOOK KID GLEASON

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—When it comes to miracle men in baseball, don't overlook Kid Gleason of the Chicago Americans.

The manager of the White Sox at the close of the 1920 season was left a remnant of his once great team because of the 1919 world series scandal.

No one will deny but that Chicago made it interesting for any club it played last season.

Gleason developed three great young pitchers last year in Leverette, Robertson and Ted Blankenship. Pitching is most essential.

Gleason is already enthusing over his chances for the coming season. He is well satisfied with his pitching. It is in other departments that he feels the club should be much stronger.

The Sox manager is positive that in Taylor, a recruit shortstop, he has a fine understudy for Ernie Johnson, and that in Woodworth he has a certain star in the making for Eddie Collins when the veteran passes out.

Two new outfielders, Pennington and Elish, will be hard to keep out of the regular lineup.

Elish, from breaking into the lineup right off the reel.

At third he will have the much-touted Willie Kamm.

All of which explains why Gleason is so enthusiastic over his team's chances for 1923.

SKATING CARNIVAL WON BY MOORE

(By The Associated Press.)

MONMOUTH, N. J., Feb. 20.—Joe Moore of New York, was declared winner of Marine Skating Carnival this afternoon having amassed a total of 45 points, the record for the cup.

Charles Jewtraw of Lake Placid, N. Y., international amateur skating champion, sprinted to a new world's record of 13.4 seconds for 100 feet in an exhibition race. Jewtraw clipped a full second off the former record, held by Don Baker of New York.

Jewtraw's performance was the second record breaking feat of the evening of the ice meet. Charles Gorman of St. John, N. B., who finished second in the point score, established a new mark of 27.1 seconds for 440 yards in winning the event of the championship program.

The former record of 27.5 seconds was held by Moore.

Moore, whose sensational skating gained him a big lead in the initial championship race, captured the victory today by capturing the three mile race, tying Roy McWhirter of Chicago for first place in the 3-4 mile race, and finishing second to Gorman in the 440 yard event.

Gorman, in second place, amassed a total of 60 points, five more than McWhirter.

AWARDED SERVICE CROSS

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Feb. 20.—American Ambassador Herrick today presented the Distinguished Service Cross to Lieutenant Andre De Nulzie, French liaison officer with the American army during the war.

He presented a similar decoration to Frederick Mallet of Paris, father of Lieutenant Grand Mallet of the French army, who was killed in action with the 47th United States Infantry.

ROCKY MOUNT NEWS

ROCKY MOUNT, Va., Feb. 20.—Friday evening on the local court an intensely interesting game of basketball was played between Martinsville High school team and the local High school team which resulted in Martinsville winning the game. Score 13-11.

Next game of the Rocky Mount High school both girls and boys team will be played in Vinton, Thursday, Feb. 22.

Mrs. W. B. Lipscomb, of Nashville, Tenn., secretary of the Board of Missions of the Southern Methodist church, delivered a most interesting and able address in Scott Memorial Methodist church, last evening, Feb. 18th, telling of the wonderful future of the Southern Fund in Foreign Fields. She was followed by the Rev. S. J. Beatin, Presiding Elder of the Danville District, of Va. Conference, who out lined the work that is being done to raise the deficiency fund of the church.

The fund has been promised up to this time. Scott Memorial Church has paid her quota in full up to date.

Mrs. G. C. Dudley, H. L. Dudley, J. L. Percus and Peters Saunders have purchased from Mr. Carper, several acres of land north of the Y. and W. station for extensive work, which will begin in the near future.

The Rev. Arthur Wake attended one day Evangelistic Institute in Lynchburg, the past week.

The Rev. Arthur Wake will conduct a series of pro-Easter services in the Third Christian Church of Richmond, beginning, March 19th and continuing to March 30th.

Mr. Wake is now preaching regularly for the Boone Mill church every first Sunday morning service, and every third Sunday evening service.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Christian church held its regular meeting in the home of Mrs. R. L. Ferguson, on Diamond avenue. A good attendance was reported.

Mr. John Hale, who was stricken with a stroke of paralysis Saturday afternoon will be carried to the Roanoke hospital, this afternoon, Monday, for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Davis, with Misses Martha and Irvine Williams and Miss Margery Brown were in Roanoke Saturday evening to see "Eve" at the Academy of Music.

Mr. A. B. Garrett has returned from Richmond, where he attended the Grand Lodge of Masons.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Davis had Miss Belle Young of Roanoke for their week-end guest.

Miss Josephine Ramsey with Mr. John H. Penn, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ryland Goode, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Kent Shepherd of Winston-Salem, N. C. and Mrs. J. Haide Dargfield of Philadelphia, who have been visiting their father, Judge P. H. Dillard, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. H. W. Peak and Mrs. B. L. Fisher, who have been patients in a Roanoke hospital, have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Fisher will leave tomorrow for Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Fisher will be under treatment while there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Prillaman of Calloway were the guests of their daughters, Miss Mollie and Nellie Prillaman, Saturday and Sunday.

E. A. Prillaman, Jr., of Washington, D. C. and Russell Davis a student of Roanoke College, were the guests of their parents, for the week-end.

Mrs. S. H. McFee of Ferrum was in town Friday, the guest in the home of Mrs. J. N. Harbison on Maple avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Parish of Martinsville are in Rocky Mount, the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. C. S. Greer, on Main street.

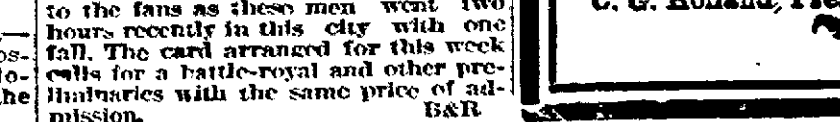

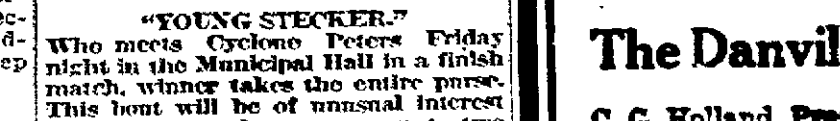

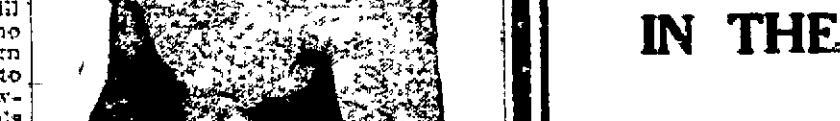

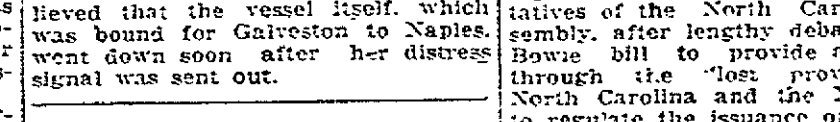

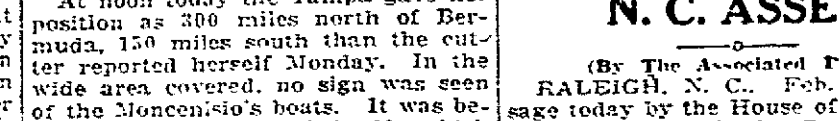

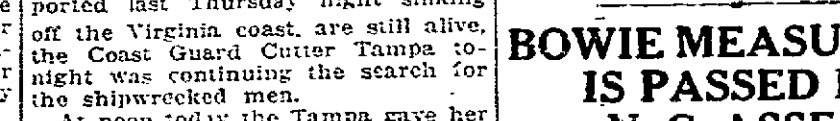

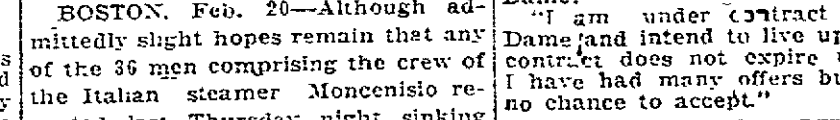

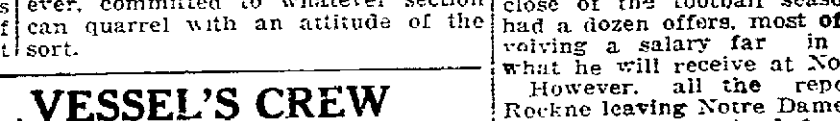

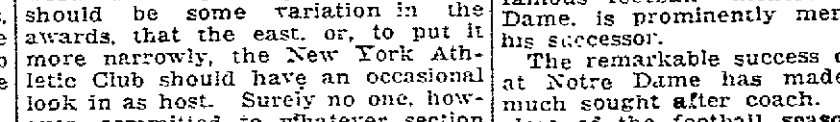

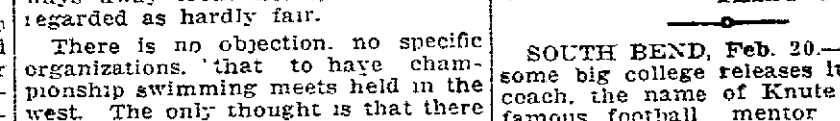

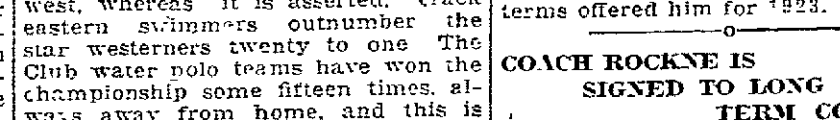

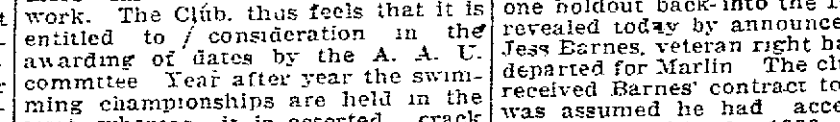

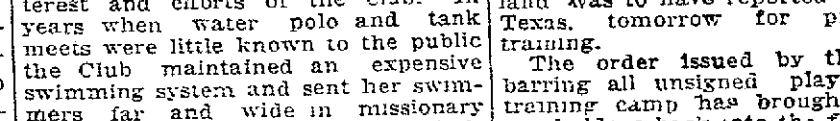

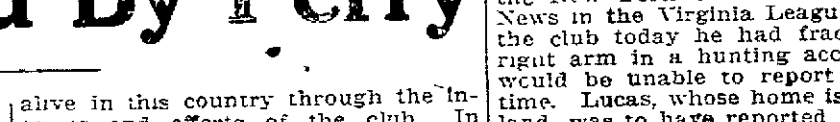

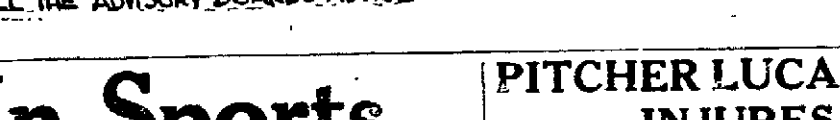

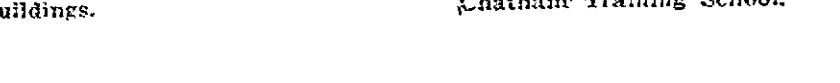

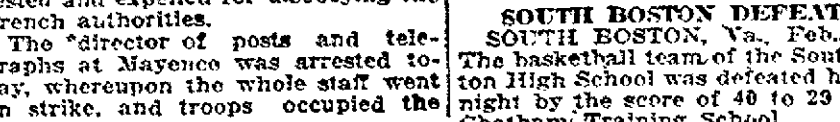

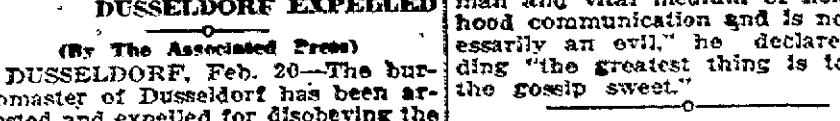

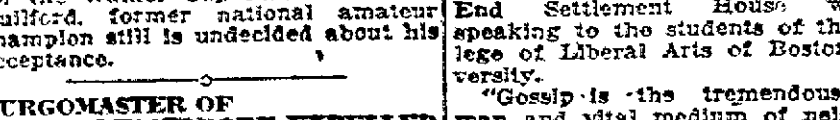

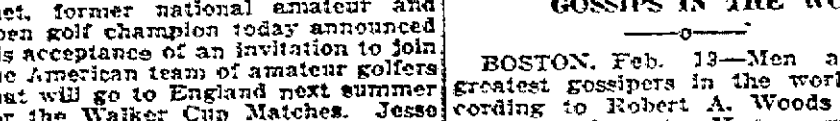

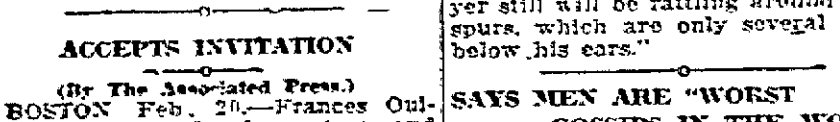

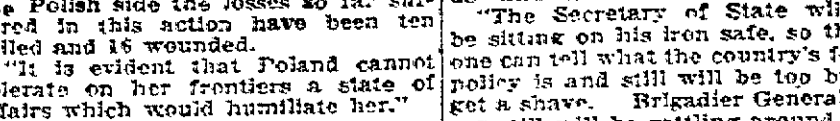

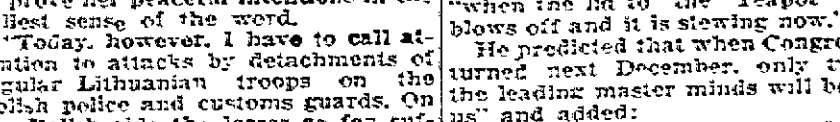

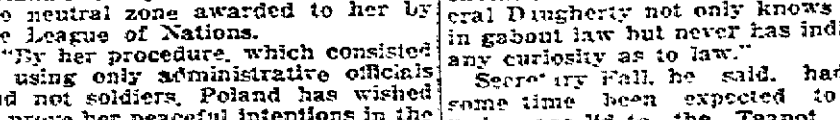

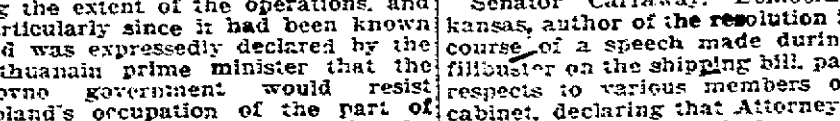

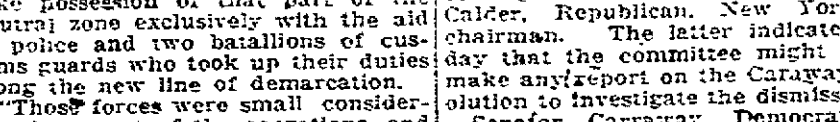

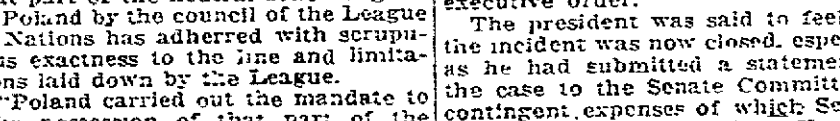

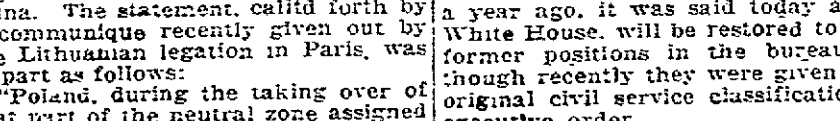

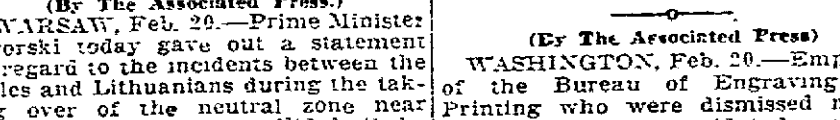

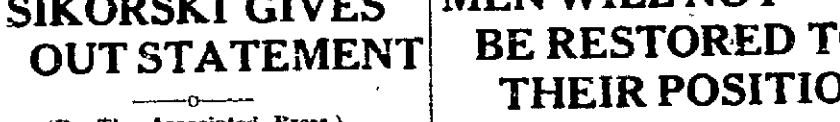

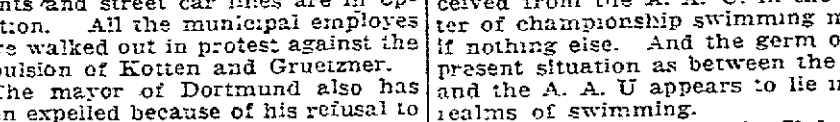

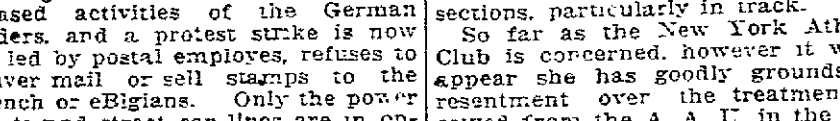

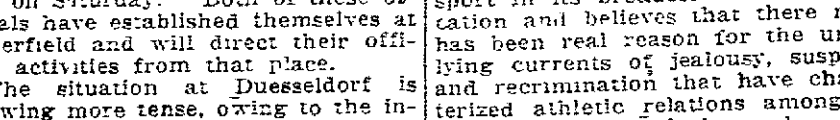

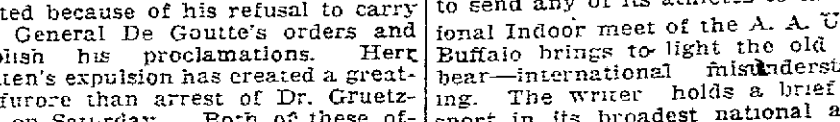

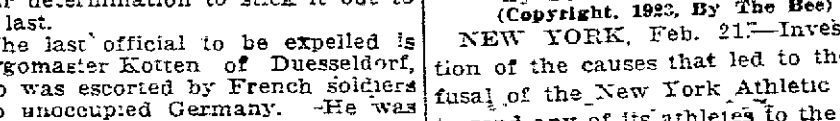

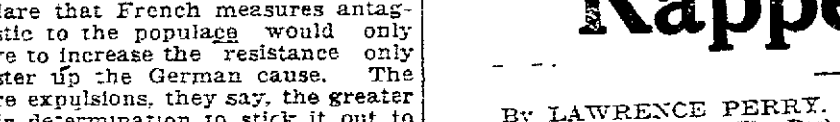

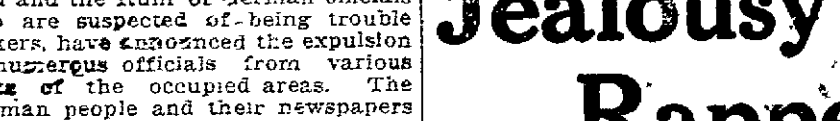

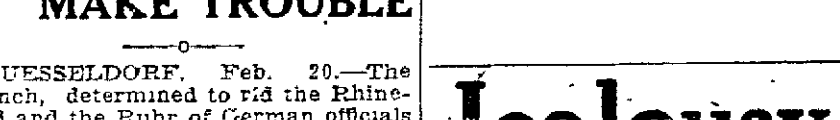

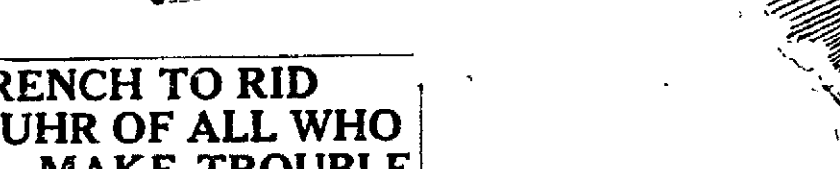

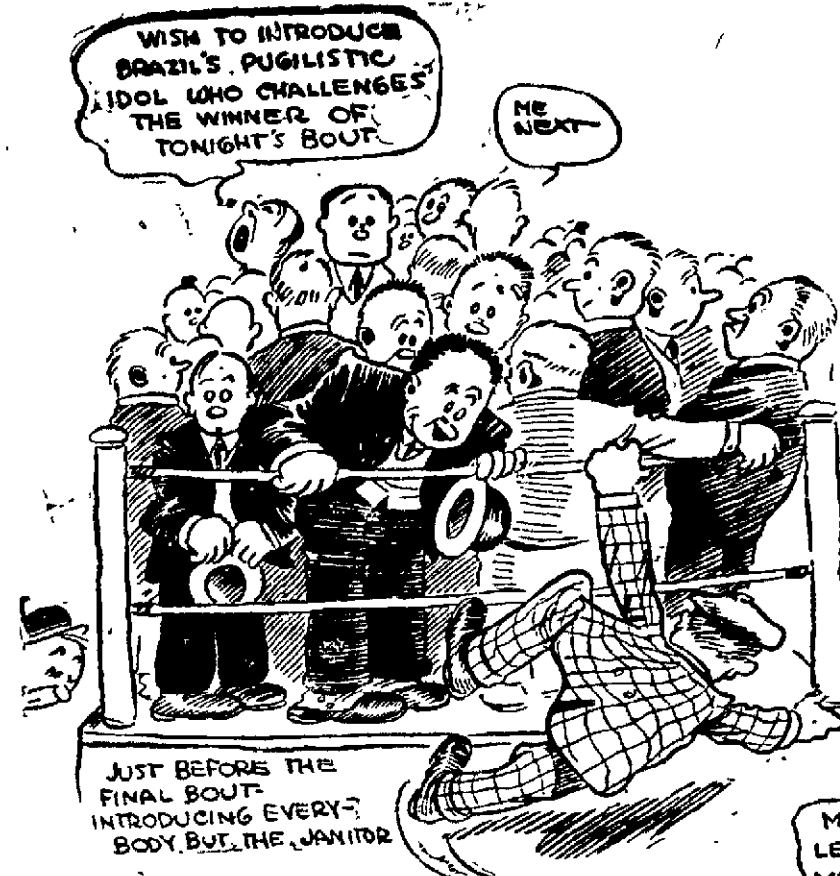

The Rev. J. W. Wimshill returned the latter part of the past week from Phoenix, where he conducted a series of meetings.

Jealousy In Sports Rapped By Perry

By LAWRENCE PERRY.
(Copyright, 1923, By The Bee)

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Investigation of the causes that led to the refusal of the New York Athletic Club to send any of its athletes to the National Indoor meet of the A. A. U. at Buffalo brings to light the old bugbear—international misunderstanding.

The writer holds a brief for sport in its broadest national application and believes that there never has been real reason for the underlying currents of jealousy, suspicion and recrimination that have characterized athletic relations among the sections, particularly in track.

So far as the New York Athletic Club is concerned, however it would appear she has goodly grounds for resentment over the treatment received from the A. A. U. in the matter of championship swimming meets.

If nothing else, and the germ of the present situation as between the Club and the A. A. U. appears to lie in the realms of swimming.

The New York Athletic Club feels quite warily that the sport of swimming in the past has been kept alive in this country through the interest and efforts of the club.

In years when water polo and tank meets were little known to the public the Club maintained an expensive swimming system and sent her swimmers far and wide in missionary work. The Club, thus feels that it is entitled to consideration in the awarding of dates by the A. A. U. committee Year after year the swimming championships are held in the sport in which the Club has been the eastern swimming outpourer.

BOSTON CLUB REPORTED SOLD

(By The Associated Press.)

BOSTON, Feb. 20.—It was reported today that the Boston National League Club was to be sold. Charles Levine of New York, was known to be in the city negotiating for purchase, with the intention of making Christy Mathewson, president.

George Grant, present owner of the Braves could not be reached for comment. His office, however, made an appointment late today at Grant's request for newspapermen to see him tonight. It was indicated that an announcement of some kind would then be made.

President Grant announced the sale of the club tonight at a dinner attended by the new president, Christy Mathewson, Mr. Fuchs and Manager Mitchell, of the Braves. Mr. MacDonough, a New York banker, returned to that city today after the completion of the deal.

The first act of the new owner was to announce and Mr. Mathewson as president of the club. Mr. Fuchs, who was president of the club for a former judge and a former deputy attorney general of New York. It was said that the new owners intended that the board of directors should be composed of principally of Bostonians.

Mathewson's return to major league baseball as president of the Braves marks also his return to the scene of his debut in professional baseball. He embarked on his career as a pitcher with the Taunton Club of the old New England League.

PITCHER LUCAS INJURES ARM

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Chester Lucas, rookie pitcher purchased by the New York Giants from Newport News in the Virginia League, notified the club today he had fractured his right arm in a hunting accident and would be unable to report for some time. Lucas, whose home is in Clinton, Texas, tomorrow for preliminary training.

The order issued by the Giants barring all unsigned players from training camp has brought at least one holdout back into the fold, it was revealed today by announcement that Jess Barnes, veteran right hander, had departed for Marlboro, Va., where he was assumed he had accepted the terms offered him for 1923.

However, all the reports about Lucas leaving Notre Dame are mere puff. Rockne gained football fame as a Notre Dame player and the love of his Alma Mater is strong. These words by Rockne should put to rest all rumors that he is to quit Notre Dame.

"I am under contract to Notre Dame and intend to live up to it. My contract does not expire until 1925. I have had many offers but there is no chance to accept."

TEXTILES
"PHILADELPHIA" Feb. 20.—Indications of the activity of the textile trades here may be judged from fully on freight shipments for one week on day on one railroad from Kensington, a section where most of the plants are located. Shipments totaling 1,104 from 432 shippers consigned to 1,351 customers at 647 different points in 43 states.

FRUIT
SEATTLE, Feb. 20.—Shipments of commercial boxed apples from Washington through the Panama Canal and up to March 15 amount to 400,000 boxes. The carry over in storage today in apple centers in this territory is estimated at 1,000,000 boxes or approximately 2,000 carloads.

AUTOMOBILES
CLEVELAND, Feb. 20.—The head of the Jordan Motor Company declared today that while motor companies with small outputs may be forced to advance prices, those with large outputs will be able to absorb increased costs through larger volume of production.

ATLANTA, Feb. 20.—Demand for closed models has been the feature of the automobile show now in progress here. Sales are coming in satisfactorily, exhibitors said today.

WOOL
SAN ANGELO, Texas, Feb. 22.—Wool and mohair growers are in clover at present. Good clips, an open winter and the good prices obtained last year have made them very optimistic. The ranges have been so good that the sheep except the range hogs are being sold at a profit which will reduce cost of production materially.

LUBRICATING OIL.
MARKET IS FIRM
BY J. C. TAL MADGE
HOUSTON, Feb. 20.—The recent advance in the prices of the coastal Crude Oil has brought a firm tone in the lubricating oils at advance of half to 3-5 cents a gallon. Gas Oil is up half cent and some refiners are sold up to mid-summer Fuel Oil here has advanced 25 cents a barrel to $1.40 and $1.75.

New roads were set for the building construction in the first seven weeks of this year in which time permits for more than $2,000,000 worth of work here were issued. It is probable that the new cotton exchange originally intended for 16 stories will be made two stories higher to meet the demand for offices.

LIVESTOCK
FORT WORTH, Feb. 20.—Range cattle are wintering throughout Texas in better shape than the average according to the Texas and South Western cattle raisers association today due to improved range conditions. The livestock market here is little changed. Although hogs are slightly stronger, wheat and winter grass are growing well over all the ranges.

BEANS
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 20.—The average planted to beans this year will be greatly increased according to state agricultural officials. It is expected that the better demand for beans will encourage growers probable returns on the larger production.

COTTON
ATLANTA, Feb. 20.—The cold and stormy weather here has hindered farm operations to some extent, but planters are preparing for extraordinary activity this season.

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS
(Special to The Bee.)
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—What is exile doing for the ex-kaiser?

Is Doorn breaking him physically as St. Helena did Napoleon, is he still capable of a "comeback"? According to Frederick Pierce, analytical psychologist, Wilhelm II, if given the opportunity, is still capable of making infinite trouble in the future just as he has in the past.

This is written, not in the stars, but in his glands, by which physiologists and psychologists, instead of astrologists read the future of each individual.

"Napoleon's physique and mental picture showed him to be a man dominated by a varying, unstable, unbalanced pituitary," says Pierce. "His glands deteriorated with age, he became fat, indolent, puerile-minded and apathetic. Had he been released from exile, it is certain he could not have come back."

"But the Kaiser belongs to a different glandular classification. Had he been endowed with a differently balanced glandular system in his head and his body, the world might have been saved the recent bloodshed."

"A less active thyroid gland in his chest and a more vigorous front lobe of the pituitary in his head, he would literally have been less 'chesty' and more reasonable."

"The Kaiser is a glandular inferior. Slender, of medium stature, heavily boned, narrow dental arch, high round forehead, with inferior blood vessels, he suggests the type that is dominated by the thymus, with probably unstable thyroid and inferior interstitial secretion."

"Mentally this type is highly unstable, sometimes delusional, usually with exaggerated ego consciousness. It is easily influenced by certain dominant types, but has difficulty in sticking to decisions unless influence is kept in force."

"This type is emotionally indited and easily flattered. Physically, however, he seeks to compensate for this by being self-centered to the last degree and when the accident of birth or circumstance places such persons in an exalted position, inordinate self-conceit results which can easily be merged into a delusion of grandeur."

The lines of the least resistance and remain a rather brooding, young, subject to broochitis, sore throat and cold circulation, fits of depression and increasingly unstable temper. But released and returned to a position of power and influence, surrounded by the pomp and flattery upon which his nature feeds, he could easily revert to his pre-war type."

BATTLING MILLION-DOLLAR BLAZE

Freezing point temperature causing streams of water to congeal in icy mass on the walls of the burning structure, seriously hampered the work of firemen when they battled the recent blaze which destroyed Omaha, Neb., packing plant of Armour and Company. Loss believed to have been well over a million.

GOVERNOR SENDS NAMES OF NINE FOR COMMISSION

(By The Associated Press)
RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 20.—Governor Cameron Morrison tonight sent to the Senate the names of nine men he has appointed to constitute the state "ship and transportation commission" for which the General Assembly has provided by the enactment of the Brown substitute for the original administration state ship bill. The Senate delayed confirmation as the night session previously was understood to consider local legislation only.

A bill tonight passed the third reading in the Senate providing for the building of a hospital for the treatment of tubercular state prisoners. The bill was amended before passing, placing the hospital's support in the hands of the board of directors of the state sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis instead of leaving it under the control of the board of health and cutting the appropriation from $75,000 to $50,000.

STORM DID NOT CHECK BUSINESS ADVANCEMENT BY EARL JANKES

ST. PAUL, Feb. 20.—The storm has not checked business advancement in the northwest. Wholesalers and manufacturers are doing for more business than a year ago and retail trade in the Twin Cities is active. Carloadings on the northwestern railroads are running from 15 to 25 per cent heavier than in the corresponding period of 1922.

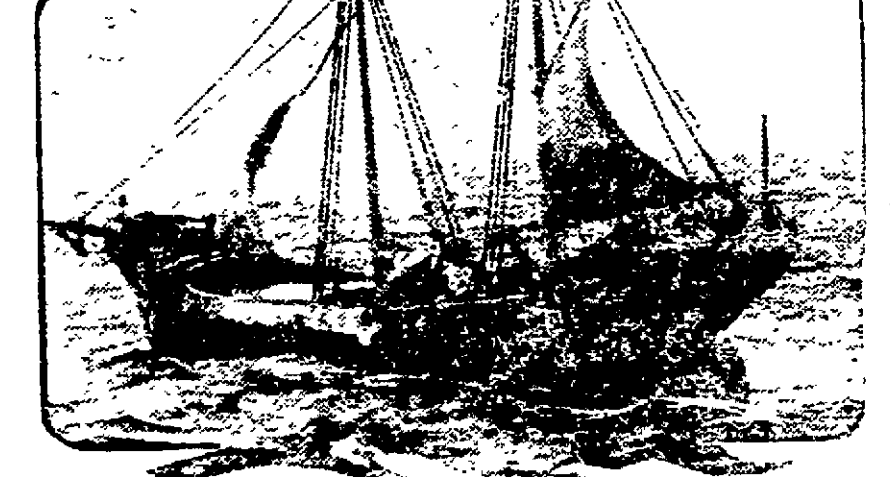

The drug trade in the Twin Cities has been giving a forward impetus by the annual assembly of druggists here this week. Bankers report a tendency toward slightly higher interest rates on loans but money still is easy. Plans for erection of two new hotels are here and one in Minneapolis have been made this week.

GAS SHORTAGE DID NO EFFECT ON PLANTS BY B. U. KALFMAN

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 20.—A natural gas shortage during the recent week has practically no effect on industrial plants in this section and production of all kinds is being pushed to the limit by shortage and freight car supply. Demand for steel is so extensive that makers already are turning their attention to orders for the third quarter. Many mills are practically sold up for second quarter production and premiums for immediate delivery are kicking on an effort to prevent a runaway market on some lines. Clerks are working nights to book the orders coming in.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 20.—Pip iron makers today are anticipating high prices. Steel plants are absorbing huge amounts of pig iron and supplies from merchants' furnaces are being gradually absorbed. Bessemer is quoted at $4.80 a ton and $2.80 a ton at $4.50 and $2.80. The Pittsburgh Steel Company has advanced steel hoop and band steel $3 a ton to $2.80 per hundred. Pittsburgh and Steel Band Ties $3 a ton.

REPORT STEADY INCREASE
ST. LOUIS, Feb. 20.—Railroads in this section report a steady increase in effective motive power chiefly as a result of rebuilding and repairing activities and of new equipment purchases. The tonnage moving capacity of the carriers will be considerably greater in the 30 to 60 days than at any time in a year. Still equipment is not expected to meet the demands of the commerce.

Grew beds of tall chrysanthemum—
A poet wrote the above lines, liked them and wanted to put them to some use but couldn't find a suitable rhyme for the word "chrysanthemum." Can you think of a word that will suit the purpose, or a combination of words that will rhyme with the last three syllables?

Yesterday's answer:

A boy bought a number of pieces of candy for twelve cents. The candy would have cost one cent less per dozen pieces, had he received two pieces more. The number of pieces he received was sixteen. The cost of the candy was nine cents per dozen pieces, or sixteen pieces for twelve cents. Had he received two pieces more (eighteen pieces) for his twelve cents, the cost of the candy would have been eight cents per dozen pieces.

FUNERAL TODAY

The remains of J. F. Smith, aged 14, who died at Folsom, La., where he had been taken for his health, arrived in Danville from Atlanta at one o'clock this morning. The funeral will be held at 11 a. m. Wednesday from the chapel of T. A. Fox, interment to be made in Green Hill cemetery.

Women Tire Men As Novelists; Cities Have It On the Country; West Outwritten By the East

(Special to The Bee.)

ALL women superlating men as literary leaders in America? Are the big cities more prolific of the coming generation of writers than the small towns and country? Is the literary west forging ahead of the literary east?

The answers to these questions, and other interesting queries of America's literary trend, are indicated in a census of the contributors to Harper & Brothers' nation-wide prize novel contest as it draws to a close.

This oldest general publishing house in America has shown itself particularly interested in young American authors.

Believing that there are in the United States many young writers who have achieved success in the short story, in newspaper work, and in magazine articles, who are capable of writing good novels, the Harpers offered a cash prize of $2,000, in addition to the ordinary royalty terms.

For the best novel submitted by an author who has not published a novel in book form prior to 1921.

Novels Pouring In

The manuscripts have poured in since June, when the contest opened. The contest closes March 1. During the past month the manuscripts have been coming in at a rate of 12 to 15 a day, from all over the United States, the Philippine Islands, and even from China.

The answer to the first question discloses that the aspiring authors and authoresses are exactly even in number—50 per cent. of the contributions being by men, 50 per cent. by women.

This shows a trend, Harper and Brothers say, toward women displacing men as writers.

In answer to the second question, big cities seem to foster more writers than the small towns and country—60 per cent. of the novels being from cities.

Cities In the Lead

Twenty per cent. of the women writers admitted they were married.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION CAUSED FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Spontaneous combustion today was advanced as the cause of the disastrous fire which killed 24 patients and nurses at the Manhattan State Hospital for the insane on Ward's Island last Sunday.

Testimony that defective wiring could not have caused the fire was given at the inquiry pressed by Medical Examiner Norris while Acting Mayor Hurlbert was in Albany conferring with Governor Smith on steps to protect the other institutions in this city against fire menace.

Assistant District Attorney Jones, after spending several hours on the island, said he was convinced there had been no criminal negligence on the part of any individual and that he had found nothing which would warrant him going before a grand jury.

Of the 24 patients and three male nurses who fell victims to the disaster last night, the bodies had been uncovered tonight but in only a few cases was identification possible. The twenty-second body was found this afternoon under the water tank that crashed in the ward while the fire was at its height.

VESSEL IS RESCUED

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A message to Lloyd's says the crew of the German Steamer Otto Fischer, from Hamburg to Buenos Aires, has been rescued by Norwegian and Japanese seamen off the Northwest coast of Spain.

An earlier report said the Otto Fischer had sent out S. O. S. calls and was sinking. The Otto Fischer was a vessel of 2,333 tons.

$0 per cent. signed themselves "lives" which would indicate that married women have less opportunity for "self-expressions."

Strange to say, of all the girl writers the small towns and country, the preponderance, 55 per cent., are from villages. Of the men, 50 per cent. are from cities.

In answer to the third question.

The literary center of America is still preponderantly east—only 30 per cent. of the manuscripts coming from west of the Mississippi.

New York state leads all others with 20 per cent. of the total number of novels contributed. California is second with 11 per cent. Illinois, which has lately been making noisy claims to be the literary capital of America, trails along in third place with only 7 per cent. Massachusetts, the land of the "Joans," shows herself to be deteriorating rapidly, managing only fourth place with 5 per cent. and sharing even this place with Pennsylvania and Minnesota.

How States Rank

In the order of their literary productivity the other states follow: Oregon, 2 1/2 per cent.; District of Columbia and Missouri, 2 per cent.; New Jersey, Kentucky and Ohio, 2 1/2 per cent.; Maryland, Connecticut and Virginia, 2 per cent.; Louisiana, Washington, Indiana, Maine, New Hampshire and Tennessee, 1 1/2 per cent.; Massachusetts, West Virginia and Rhode Island, 1 per cent. All the rest of the forty-eight states, qualified as literary meat-broth, less than one-half of one per cent. apiece.

The winner of the contest will be announced as soon after its close as possible and not later than May 1.

The judges are: Jesse Lynch Williams, president of the Authors' League of America; Henry Seidel Canby, editor of the Literary Review of the New York Evening Post; and Carl Van Doren, literary editor of the "Century" Magazine and author of "The American Novel."

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Feb. 20.—Bishop Thomas E. Gailor, head of the Episcopal Church in America, in an address here today denounced the Ku Klux Klan, declaring he believed that "groups of people who are obsessed with an antiquated and certain social or religious class are doing more to spread discontent and disorder than any other thing in the United States today."

The Bishop also stated that he was opposed to turning the country over to followers of socialism, "because," he said, "I think they are simply chasing rainbows. They lack imagination and are merely professional reformers."

Bishop Gailor said that his recent address in Washington had been misquoted and that he was opposed to all groups of people who attempted by force to thrust their views upon other citizens of the country.

The Bishop tonight declined to reply to a statement sent out from Nashville by John Royal Harris, of Cumberland University, who attacked the churchman's views on prohibition.

HIS way some congressmen run rapidly around in circles, simulating tremendous activity in behalf of their constituents, reminds me of the story of the Irishman who was looking up and down a ladder on a tall building.

A bystander complimented him on his industry.

"Sh-h," whispered the Irishman, "sh-h, I'm foolin' the foreman, been carryin' the same load up bricks up and down again all day—but he thinks I'm workin'."

ROUNDUP DRAWS NO CATTLEMEN

(By The Associated Press)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 21.—Cattlemen from all sections of the United States will gather here March 19-22 for the sixth Annual Hereford Round-Up.

The event is an annual assembly of men engaged in producing the famous Hereford bull, a day-long auction of registered Herefords is the magnet which draws cattlemen here. It is held under auspices of the American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association.

In the Round-Up crowds will be seen browned panthers, South American ranchmen from Brazil and Uruguay, picturesque cow men from Kansas and many of the United States and rugged stockmen from corn belt farms.

In 1918, when the first sale was held, the hard-working auctioneers disposed of 229 head of cattle in ten hours or one every two minutes. Last year, 471 head were sold with the same speed.

Spectacular sales have featured the auctions at past round-ups. Last year a Hereford bull, bred by Bert Thompson of Olathe, Kan., was bought for $1,025, by a South American ranchman. The top price paid at the 1920 sale was $7,500 for a sire, "Maple Leaf," bred by Thomas L. Cashman of Owatonna, Minn., from J. C. Robinson and Sons of Evansville, Wis.

WET RESOLUTION PASSED BY N. Y. HOUSE TUESDAY

(By The Associated Press)
ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 20.—Adoption by the Assembly today of the amended Walker-Donohue resolution intended to memorialize Congress on the modification of the Volstead Act to legalize wine and beer was characterized by Governor Smith tonight as just another bit of history of prohibition in this state that further proves New York's dissatisfaction with the whole affair.

The measure as finally adopted was amended to require the governor's signature and to provide that individual copies be sent to every Senator and Congressman.

Replying to critics in the Assembly who called the resolution a mere gesture, Governor Smith said:

"This resolution, if adopted by the Senate in its amended form, will go to Congress as a sincere declaration of New York State's sentiment and as a whole affair."
